

Please leave the no call list alone. I do not appreciate having to sign up for this every year. It is stupid. I am still bothered by too many calls at night from the so-called exempt agencies. I don't appreciate the irritation of getting calls when I am in the middle of a good show or eating.